What to expect?

The Hague Summer School will take place from July 1st, 2024 until July 26th, 2024.

Our program includes the practice-based general module - Exchange Perspectives for Local Impact in Collaboration (EXPLICO) together with academic elective courses on Peace, Justice, Human Rights, Migration, Democracy, Sustainable Development and Entrepreneurship.

What's more, our extensive social and cultural program will make your stay with us a once in a lifetime experience. So be prepared for a lot of fun activities!

Curious for more? Do you want to find out what you can expect and get an idea what it was like in recent years? The official website of The Hague Summer School is online now, so make sure to find out what will be on offer next summer.
